Guwahat: AAP has alleged a nefarious attempt by BJP in Guwahati to upset it's prospect for the upcoming GMC polls.

Talking to Assam Times, a senior leader of the party said that BJP/s youth wing has damaged a hoarding in Guwahati on Monday.

He said that this was followed by the removal of a few other AAP banners and hoardings in the Capital city by the administration.

Later in a statement, the newly emerging party said that BJP's the largest ever political party on the planet was rattling at the stepped up electioneering by a very small party which is in power only in two states.

AAP is contesting 40 wards out of 60 in the GMC polls slated for April 22.
