HOJAI: The Hojai town authorities have demolished as many as 10 unauthorised shops and 12 houses at New Market near Hojai Railway Station on Thursday in an eviction drive carried out peacefully from morning 10 AM onwards by the Northern Eastern Railways with the help of local administration.

The eviction was carried out with full security arrangements in the presence of Railway Officers, Circle officer, Police, Fire Brigade and CRPF authorities.

It is to be mentioned here that for the construction of long pending project of fly over bridge and for the completion of New Station building this eviction drive was carried out with prior notice to the encroachers.
