GUWAHATI: The city police is interrogating former Asom Gana Parishad (AGP) minister Rajendra Mushahary from Wednesday at the Dispur police station for illegal possession of arms ammunition.

Mr Mushahary, his two daughters have been picked up from his Rukminigaon based residence on Wednesday.

According to information, 95 rounds of live ammunition of AK 47 rifle and Rs 83,000 in cash have been recovered from the rented house of the former AGP minister.

Notably, he was accused of raping his housemaid while he was minister for hills area development during the Prafulla Kumar Mahanta regime
