Delhi Police will provides 5 special access ID cards to the entire student legislative body of each state of Northeast. Dharmendra Kumar, the Special Commissioner (law and order), has also guaranteed to create a Facebook page for people from the Northeast. The student can post their problems on the facebook page and can discuss regarding the matter. Kumar said "We will provide identification cards to five representatives from each state of the region. Each state will have two representatives each in the north and south Delhi and one in east Delhi". The meeting was arranged by Nagaland governor Nikhil Kumar, a former Commisioner of Delhi Police yesterday.
