Fresh trouble awaits Congress MLA Rumi Nath and her second husband. A legislator of her own party on Friday filed an FIR against Nath alleging that the couple had illegally entered his residence and assaulted visitors suspecting them to be involved in the mob attack.

A FIR was filed after Congress MLA Kamalakhya Purkayastha from North Karimganj, who was not present in the quarter during the incident as he was in his constituency, faxed the complaint to the Dispur police station on Friday.

He alleged that Nath, her second husband Jacky Jakir and two of her escorts forcibly entered his official quarter at Dispur capital complex late last night and beat up at least four of his visitors and a caretaker. Police investigations are going on.
