The corruption of two officers of Barpeta district and Xatra judicial office came to light. According to reports, Ganapati Talukdar, Chirastadar, Barpeta District and Xatra Judicial office and his assistant Sukur Ali called the chowkidar Jitu Sarma to open the office on January 31 at 9.30 which was a holiday (Me-dam-Me-Phi). Later on both opened took the documents of seven files of motor accident case (MAC case no 286/07, 53/08, 734/08, 356/08, 432/07, 298/08, 618/08) related to a accident case. Surprisingly, on that very day both of them had taken these documents to the residence of then District and Xatra judge D. K. Dev Roy and had taken signature in some of the important papers. On the same day they also tempered some papers.

When Guwahati High Court came to know about this incident through some source, then then judge (civil) and i/c District and Xatra Judge P. Saikia was ordered to enquire the matter. Based on the enquiry report Guwahati high court ordered on April 21 and Barpeta district and Xatra Judge L.C.Dey filed an FIR against the duo on June 4. Barpeta sadar police station registered a FIR (no-538/09, IPC-448/420/468/34 CrPc). Since then, the two accused persons were not caught till now. There may be some other corruption in the judiciary, which will yet to be focused, sources said.
