Forest Minister Md. R. Hussain today inaugurated the 8th Kaziranga Elephant festival amidst a huge gathering in Mihiremukh festival ground. He hoped, the festival would surely help decrease man and elephant conflict and more love will grow for the protection of KNP. He called upon the people to save KNP as their life. Prithwibi Maji, the Minister also attended the programme. The programme was followed by cultural functions. Earlier in the morning hours, a colourful procession of harmony was organised where 49 elephants led by Rammraj was taken out and it was inaugurated by the Md R. Hussain, the Minister. A souvenir “Oirawat” published on the occasion was also released. A fair of the SHGs has also taken place in the festival ground.
