Former Assam Minister Siddique Ali Ahmed expresses suspects the role of rebels in ceasefire behind the killing of Lafikul Islam Ahmed. But the Congress leader refused to name the rebels who killed the ABMSU leader in Kokrajhar.

Siddique told reporters when he visited Ahmed's bereaved family members on Thursday. 'This was a handiwork of the militants now in ceasefire. Somebody might deploy these rebels to kill Lafikul Islam', Ahmed said.

He demanded speedy probe into it which needs to probe the role of SP Kokrajhar calling it a political conspiracy.

He said SIT was not a reliable investigating agency. 'The SIT cannot give justice to the murder case of Lafikul, so CBI should be conducted', Siddique said.
