GUWAHATI: Shock and anger grip Assam again when a girl from Boko died in Guwahati Medical College Hospital on Saturday nine days after three local youths gangraped her.

The incident took place on December 14 in Rongapani area when three local youths came to her house and gangraped her in the absence of her parents.

The seriously injured girl was rushed to the GMCH where she died on Saturday triggering huge protest in the entire area. As the sad news spread like wildfire in the morning people in large number came out to the road demanding immediate arrest of the perpetrators.

Boko police have already arrested one of the trio after the incident. Two others are still absconding.
