

Gogoi admits security lapse in the city

Comments 0

editor 2 January 2009 9664 views

A stunned Assam Chief Minister has admitted that there has been lapses in security arrangement in the city which resulted in the recurrence in the serial blast. Talking to reporters during his visit to the blast sites, Gogoi said it's clearly has indicated a case of security lapses.

The Union home minister P Chidambaram, who has arrived in the city minutes after the blast said the sting of blast a handiwork of ULFA.

Assam DGP GM Srivastava also said ULFA is behind the serial blast took place in Bhangagarh, Birubari and Bhootnath area on Thursday evening. Three blast in the city left 5 dead and over 40 injured. The Home minister is scheduled to hold a crucial discussion on Friday to review the state's law and order situation.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

AJYCP protests against Lower Subansiri hydropower project

School reopening in the state

UPPL ready for election

Physical assault on magistrate in Kokrajhar

Peace Conversations in Assam
