Chief minister Tarun Gogoi did an Arvind Kejriwal when he led a protest rally in Guwahati alleging centre's policy that would make the state more poor.

Gogoi along with several other party leaders held a rally at Latashil playground on Tuesday. Talking to reporters, Gogoi said that the curtailment of central share in the various schemes would hamper the process of development in near future.

"We must get justice. We have been demanding an appointment with prime minister. But we have not received any response," he said.
