Assam chief minister Tarun Gogoi on Tuesday called on several UPA heavyweights in Delhi amid speculations of an impending cabinet reshuffle. Gogoi met Union finance minister Pranab Mukherjee and discussed the state's financial health. Before that he met defence minister AK Antony and home minister P Chidambaram where he discussed the state's law and order. On Monday, he called on Congress president Sonia Gandhi a day after he attended the chief minister's conference on NCTC.
