Congress pulls up its sleeves to move the people again hardly a year before the assembly polls.

Party president Anjan Dutta and chief minister Tarun Gogoi have asked ministers and MLAs to ensure historic crowd at the anniversary function in Guwahti slated for May 23 and 24.

Gogoi asked his cabinet colleagues to highlight the success stories which he thinks would be the best way to reach the voters.

" This is our the initial stage of our strategy. Wait and watch how we will woo the voters. We are proceeding step by step," a senior party leader told Assam Times.

Another party leader said,"we have inputs even from the grassroot level that nobody can stop us. That's why, we are confident of a fourt straight win."

"Why should a chief minister tell that his party will retain? There is definitely some reasons," said another senior leader.

KOKRAJHAR, September 22, 2026 — The All Bodo Students' Union (ABSU) on Tuesday burnt copies of a book titled Hamkoshar Parishista during protests held at several locations across Assam, including Gauhati University, objecting to what it described as the use of the Assamese script to represent the Bodo language.

Hamkoshar Parishista is a multilingual appendix containing learning resources for indigenous languages of Assam, including Bodo, Rabha, Mising and Karbi.

During the protests, ABSU members alleged that Bodo has been represented in the publication using the Assamese script instead of Devanagari, the script used for Bodo.

The organisation asserted that Bodo is recognised under the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution of India and is an Associate Official Language of Assam. ABSU demanded that Bodo be represented in its recognised script in educational and learning resources.

ABSU president Khwrmmdao Wary said the use of the Assamese script to represent Bodo in the publication was disrespectful to the Bodo language and literature.

He said Bodo is an Associate Official Language of Assam and a language recognised under the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution.

Wary demanded the immediate withdrawal of the publication in its present form and called for the use of the Devanagari script for Bodo in the book.
