The Assam Government has announced judicial probe into the Dispur firing clash where 3 persons including a minor boy lost their lives. The announcement came from Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi who is expected to receive the Surajeet Mitra's enquiry report on Monday. According to information, a panel of a retired high court judge would probe the entire incident where a section of KMSS -protesters turned violent as they were holding a rally in Dispur last gate on June 22. Initially, the government asked additional chief secretary Surajeet Mitra to probe the incident which is set to submit the report on Monday.
