The Ahmedabad Indian Institute of Management on Tuesday presented before Assam Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi the blueprint of a roadmap for Assam Rajiv Gandhi University of Cooperative Management for making it a Centre of Excellence.

IIM Ahmedabad has been working with ARGUCM since August 2010 following the signing of an MoU. A three-member team of IIM-A comprising Prof Sanjay Verma, Prof Vijay Paul Sharma and Prof M.R. Dixit highlighted that the structure of the university was made on strategic academic architecture, broad outline of the activities, key management process and milestones. They suggested the opening up of five major schools: Entrepreneurship and Management, Innovation and Technology, Culture and Media, Public Policy and Law and Ecology and Sustenance.
