Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi seems to have sharpened attack on Narendra Modi hardly a week after his Gujarat counterpart slammed him alleging lack of development initiative.

Even during the discussion on governor's address on the floor of the Assembly on Wednesday, Gogoi claimed to have done much more than Modi.

He said," Assam's growth is 13% in 2012-13. But Gujarat is satisfied with only 8.52%. Only Modi only has speed of speech where I have speed of development."

Gogoi said that Modi came to Guwahati and said that we have given jobs to only 10,000 people which was not true.
