Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi launched scathing attack on Narendra Modi alleging that the BJP's prime ministerial candidate was on a mission to divide the people.

In his welcome address at the youth and women empowerment rally in Khanapara on Monday, Gogoi said that Modi has no right to criticize him on poverty while his own Gujarat has lakhs of poor people.

He further said that Rahul Gandhi has reached out to the tribal people which Modi has yet to do.

Over 1.50 lakh people thronged the Veterinary playground to listen Rahul Gandhi.
