Chief minister Tarun Gogoi will contest thd assembly polls early next year to ensure victory for the fourth consecutive term.

Addressing a press conference in Dispur on Wednesday, he said he was confident that his party would win the polls even it goes it alone.

"I am confident of the poll victory. People want the Government to ensure sustainable development which only we can do," said Gogoi.

He said he assumed the charge as chief minister at a worst time.

"See how I have changed the entire picture during the last 14 years on all fronts," he said.

He reiterated that even after curtailment in central assistance he would not allow any scheme to lay in a shamble.
