Assam Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi is all set to table the state budget for 2011-2012 on the day one of the budget session on Monday. The ten day long session will also hold debate on the budget on July 14 and 15.

Meanwhile, the authorities have beefed up security in and around Dispur to thwart any attempt to create law and order situation during this session. Policemen are building big barricades in and around the Last Gate where the various organizations are set to stage demonstration raising their demands. The authorities have restricted the movements of the city buses through the Last Gate from Monday.
