Leading parties and organizations in Kokrajhar have vehemently opposed Ranjan Daimary's arrest in the run up to the tripartite peace talks.

Addressing a joint press conference of the four organisations held at PWD Guest House on Wednesday, ABWWF president Mithinga Basumatary along with Bodo Writers Academy vice president Rajen Basumatary, Bodo Harimu Afad Billa Kumar Brahma and Boro Somaj president Rajendra Nath Boro said that the rearrest of the NDFB chief on September 29 would put the peace process in peril.

They demanded immediate and unconditional release of Daimary before holding peace talks with the outfit. They further urged NDFB(Songbijit faction) to come forward for peace negotiation.
