Sensation prevailed at Kahibari under Udalguri PS yesterday night on August 28 at about 2.40 am in front of the residence of Rihon Daimari, former PHE minister of Assam and presently, MLA of Udalguri LAC when unidentified miscreants shot at Bhaben Kalita, a security guard at the security box from out side. However, the security guard escaped unhurt but the incident created fear psychosis in the area.

Meanwhile, an FIR has been lodged at the Udalguri Police Station but no one has been apprehended till the filing of this report. Rihon Daimari, MLA of Udalguri condemned the attempt of attack and demanded early apprehension of the culprit behind the scene. Talking to media persons Daimari said that he was surprised at the sudden attack on his security guards. According to him this could be a kind of signal to him to make demoralised socially.
