

Guns to Gandhism: Tripura surrendered militants to stage semi-naked march

Comments 0

editor 18 July 2007 16444 views

Agartala: Gandhism is catching and fast. This time it is the turn of surrendered militants of National Liberation Front of Tripura (NLFT-BM) to follow the Gandhism path alleging that the State Government has still not fulfilled their demands. Mantu Koloï alongwith 72 armed cadres had surrendered before security forces in May, 2004 following an agreement with the State Government. But Koloï says that till date the State Government has not taken any steps towards the fulfilment of promises which were made at the time of their surrender.

The former rebel leader said that as such they have been compelled to organize a semi-nude march towards the Governor House on July 25 to apprise Governor DN Sahaya about the non-fulfilment of the promises. The march would commence at 11 AM from the famous Mahatma Gandhi statue at Agartala.

It is also learnt that the State Government has stopped ration money to all the surrendered militants as well.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Act notified

Sundaram to investigate SP EAC scuffle

Gold Rush for press club screening

Restore Chakma-Hajong rights: Civil body to government

Lafikul family unhappy with CBI for delay in probe
