The rift between the Janata Bhawan and Raj Bhawan is widening day by day. Assam Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi on Friday has admitted it with displeasure by saying that the Governor has been meddling in each and every matters. Addressing a press conference at the rajiv Bhawan on Friday, Mr Gogoi said, “the governor was interfering in the NCHAC formation. Before that he appointed Dr jayashree Goswami Mahanta as the Gauhati University Executive Council despite opposition by the state Government.”

Notably, a recent cabinet meeting passed a resolution saying the Governor can talk only to the Chief Secretary if he or she wants to review the progress of a scheme.
