

Harassment: House panel lauds Assam

Comments 0

editor 9 June 2012 11991 views

The Parliamentary Standing Committee on Personnel, Public Grievances, Law and Justice on Friday said that Assam's overall performance on Supreme Court guidelines to prevent harassment of women at the workplace is very impressive.

Talking to reporters in Guwahati during the two days visit to state, Chairman of the Committee Shantaram Naik said that different organisations in the state were complying with the supreme court. He further said that the Supreme Court guidelines would remain in force till the legislation on Protection of Women Against Sexual Harassment at Workplace Bill, 2010, which is currently pending in Parliament, becomes a law.

The seven-member committee was currently on a three day visit to Shillong, Guwahati and Imphal to ascertain the views of the state governments, members of the bar and corporate bodies on the Citizens Charter Bill, Infrastructure Development of subordinate courts.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Act notified

Sundaram to investigate SP EAC scuffle

Gold Rush for press club screening

Restore Chakma-Hajong rights: Civil body to government

Lafikul family unhappy with CBI for delay in probe
