

Health checkup concludes at Guwahati Press Club

Comments 0

editor 5 April 2009 12378 views

A health check up camp at Guwahati Press Club on Sunday (April 5) for Diabetes & Hypertension shows that larger number of media persons in the city maintained good health. Organized in association with Saraighat Hospital Pvt Ltd, Kahilipara, the camp witnessed the participation of nearly hundred young journalists.

Dr Mriganka Talukdar, who conducted the camp, later however revealed that over 10 % of the participating journalists were vulnerable to ailments related to over weights. He advised the journalists to have regular nutritious food as well as physical activities and to avoid unnecessary stress.

He was assisted in the camp by Deven Talukdar, Lina Manish and Bidohini Chanu of Saraighat Hospital with Tanmoy Lala and Partha Dey of Novo Nordisk India Pvt Ltd.

Report and Pix by Dhrubajyoti Das

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

Hagrama tsunami in BTAD, UPPL, BJP at a loss

Golok Samman 2023 Announced: Four Young Honourees Recognized

Lokdarshan: A Vibrant Folk Dance Extravaganza in Udalguri

Manas National Park Reopens for Visitors, World Tourism Day Celebration Planned

Webinar held: women entrepreneurship and women empowerment
