TINSUKIA: A local resident of Tinsukis is keen to settle the evicted people in Amchang wildlife sanctuary fetching a ray of hope for the hapless lot. He is none other than Uday Saikia, the owner of a huge hotel who along with his family members have disclosed it in the social media saying that they would help these people settle in a plot of 10 bighas which draws a huge response from the people of all walks.

But the family members made it plain and simple that they had no political agenda behind the decision and urged the people not to politicize the intension.
