AGARTALA: Prime Minister Narendra Modi is again on visit to Tripura on February 15 to campaign for the party candidates for the assembly polls slated for February.

Addressing a press conference in Agartala on Saturday, senior BJP leader Ram Madhab said the prime minister, in his second leg of electioneering visit to the poll bound north eastern state is schedule to address two rallies at Shantir Bazar and Agartala.

Moreover, Union finance minister Arun Jaitley will be visiting the state to release the party's manifesto. UP chief minister Yogi Aditya is another top BJP leader who is scheduled to campaign for the party candidates.

"I am told that never Tripura registered such huge rally like that of the other day where the prime minister held. It suggests the wind that blows in favour of BJP since the people want a change of guards in Agartala," said Ram Madhab.
