Congress fire brand and health minister Dr Himanta Biswa Sarma has dropped a bombshell against AGP as he was speaking at a press conference in Guwahati on Saturday disclosing that two senior AGP veterans and MLAs have called on Assam Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi and expressed utter displeasure on the regional party's poll pact with BJP and secret deal with AUDF.

Despite repeated queries, Dr Sarma refused divulge the names saying the names would come up in due course of time. He said, "it was me who took both the MLAs to the Chief Minister to make such startling disclosure and they accordingly did it".

In yet another serious revelation, the minister observed that as he disclosed the call list of Hiranya Saikia detailing the phone calls to BJP leader S.S. Ahluwaliah along with AGP and BJP top guns, bomb blast in Guwahati have stopped.

I have a copy of BJP leader and Nagaon sitting MP Rajen Gohain's confidential letter sent to party president Rajnath Singh assuring the latter that the regional party is quite manageable.
