The Holi festivity gripped the people of the town which marks the advent of the spring. Though people were celebrating the festival of color with pomp and gaiety on Monday.

The Bhergaon sub-divisional police had impounded several motorbikes of college youths who didn't have driving licence or were drunk. While the youths were made to wait till noon only to be fined. The guardians of the youths opined that without hassling the youths could have been fined on spot.

The 'moral policing' had completely taken the sheen off the celebrations. While revellers gripped in festive mood took out rally throughout the town . Childrens and youths were seen on the streets playing holi .
