Hojai: Hojai is in deep grip of holi festivity which entered second and final day where people of all age groups celebrated the occasion with lots of enthusiasm to mark the advent of spring.

People enjoying the festivity smearing each other with colours and abir, the red vermilion powder thronging the various points to enjoy the festival of colours.

"Holi is the festival of togetherness where there is no place for enmity." said, a senior citizen Sitaram Dayma.

In SOS Children's Village, children's played HOLI with natural eco-friendly colours.

"Colours bring so much joy, may the cheer of colours always remain in our life", Said, Paresh Badyakar, Director SOS Children's Village.
