A promising footballer indeed. He is none other than Alen Deory who steals the march in the Indian Super League match in Chennai. The North East United FC teammate told Assam Times that he was confident of victory in the remaining ISL matches. Following are the excerpts of his interview with Assam Times Sports Bureau.

AT: What forced you to land in the football playground?

Allen Deory: Well, football is my passion, inspiration and what not. He is none bit my brother Willson who inspired me a lot to play football which now has become my passion.

AT: What is your take on the ISL where you are playing?

Allen Deory: I don't have any word to express how much there is excitement in me. It gives me immense pleasure to have played with the football legends whom, I do watch only on the television.

AT: Who is your favourite player

Allen Deory: My answer is straight. He is none other than Cristiano Ronaldo.

AT: Do you have any favorite player in the ISL?

Allen Deory: Obviously, Luis Yanes is my favorite player who is playing for the Northeast United FC.

AT: Unlike other players, are you facing any problem?

Allen Deory: Seldom. That's communication gap. But my team mates have been helping me overcome these with instant help and guidance.

AT: How hopeful you are on the ISL victory?

Allen Deory: Let me exude my confidence that we will be able to put up a fantastic performance in the remaining ISL matches.
