Guwahati : The Board of Secondary Education, Assam has announced the date of HSLC examination from May 11. The delay is attributed to COVID19 endemic and assembly polls. The results, however, will be announced on July 7.

On the other hand, the Assam Higher Secondary Education Council is also preparing to hold the HS examination in arts, science and commerce streams from May 12 and the results would be announced on July 30.

These board examinations normally are conducted in February and March.

This was what education minister Himanta Biswa Sarma twitted on Saturday.
