Has Ram Madhav landed the BJP in trouble in Nagaland?

POLITICS — February 11, 2018 — 0 Comment — 1555

Sources said, NSCN literally caught Ram Madhav with his pants down in Nagaland; has threatened to make video public if Nagaland elections not cancelled.

Over the past months, RSS functionary and BJP's north east in-charge, Ram Madhav has been spending considerable time earning the north eastern states. Not all of it, it turns out now, is related to spreading the good word about BJP, not unless Madhav's dissemination techniques go beyond the ones ordinarily known.

In Dimapur last week, Madhav was caught red handed and suffron faced, working well beyond his brief, with two Naga women in a hotel room, highly placed sources have informed The News Joint.

The National Socialist Council of Nagaland (NSCN), which get wind of Madhav's extracurricular activities in Nagaland not only barged into the BJP leader's room, but also managed to record, on video, Madhav's activities, if the sources are to be believed, Madhav was forced to perform sexual activities on camera.

Sources told us Madhav was held in captivity by the NSCN for hours. He then made frantic SOS calls to Assam colleague Himanata Biswa Samra, BJP's trouble shooter in the North East. Since Dimapur is not easily connected, Samra took his time to reach, and NSCN, in the meantime, kept Madhav under their watchful eye, sources said.

Samra himself has been alleged to have connections with the militants in the past and apparently it were these old resources that helped the Assam minister to reach out to the NSCN and secure Ram Madhav's release.

We have been told that the act and the frantic calls made to Samra, have all been recorded on tape. Sources said, the NSCN is in possession of hours of video footage, which it has threatened to release in public, "if the BJP-RSS do not give in to its demand to call off the assembly elections in Nagaland, due on February 27."

Samra, known for his skulduggery, has been at work in Nagaland trying to keep the lid on the controversy, as well as the footage, sources informed The News Joint. While we are working hard to get you the video, the news now is, as they say, "an open secret."

KOHIMA: Huge trouble brews for BJP in the poll bound north eastern state of Nagaland where a news portal claimed to have possessed evidence of how a party top gun was caught by rebels inside a hotel with girls.

According to The News Joint, the rebels fighting for a greater Nagalim and who have been dead opposed to the February 27 assembly polls, are believed to have caught senior party leader Ram Madhab inside a hotel in Dimapur with two girls.

Caught in a Catch 22 situation, the BJP heavyweight who handles the party's north eastern affairs called up Himanta Biswa Sarma to his rescue. His man Friday found it a herculean task to deal with the difficulties.

Armed with this situation, now the Naga rebels are believed to have mounted pressure on the BJP led government at the Centre to halt the process failing which they would publicly release the video tape in question which is bound to touch off a seismic wave of reactions amid the electioneering heat and dust in the north eastern state.

Under pressure from the rebels, a group of civil society organizations got a joint declaration signed by the major political parties not to contest the polls. A day after they signed the declaration, BJP defied it encouraging others to follow the suit. Despite differences, the party struck poll deal with NDPP led by former chief minister Neiphu Rio.

Top BJP leaders have been urging prime minister Narendra Modi and Amit Shah to campaign for the party candidate who are learnt to have agreed.

This is for all those who immediately take leave of their common sense just because a slanderous news surfaces about a Sanghi leader.

An entirely fake news is doing the rounds that last week, BJP General Secretary, and Sangh's pointsman in BJP, and in-charge of North East, Ram Madhav, had been caught having sex with two Naga women in his hotel room in Dimapur. It has also been claimed that NSCN (IM) got wind of this and barged into his room and made him perform sexual act on ... See more
