Dispur has alleged a conspiracy by Arunachal Pradesh to construct a hydro-power projects upstream of the Brahmaputra water system. Power minister Pradyut Bordoloi has appraised the Centre of the entire conspiracy alleging that the Assam government is not allowed to know. In his address at the power ministers' conference in New Delhi on Tuesday, Bordoloi said that pacts have been signed for power projects in Arunachal Pradesh. But the process is not in the knowledge of the Assam government.
