"Illegal immigrants must be deported from the state of Assam whose names were not included in the NRC final draft published today", said Assam Social welfare minister Pramila Rani Brahma on Saturday.

Brahma while hailing the NRC final draft publication, said that this is an implementation part of the historic Assam Accord.

She said that peoples of Assam state were awaited free and fair publication of NRC draft which has come today successfully with witnessing 19.06 lakh people's names were dropped from the lists.

She has termed that this is an 'Will' of the state of Assam.

Rajya Sabha MP Biswajeet Daimary also expressed his welcome gesture to the publication of the NRC final draft, said that the state of Assam has now got an opportunity to see illegal immigrants free state as today NRC authority published the draft lists.

He said that 19.06 lakh people's names were dropped out from the final draft lists.

He said that the peoples whose names were dropped from the lists, they are illegal immigrants or foreigners because they couldn't show their proper citizenship related documents.
