Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi sought divine help to tide over the problems confronting the state these days. Addressing the devotees at a Durga puja mandap in Panjabari area in Guwahati on Wednesday, he hoped that the blessings of the goddess of strength will ensure lasting peace, progress and prosperity in the state. Accompanied by his wife Dolly Gogoi, the chief minister paid obeisance to the goddess and hoped that there will be new hope dawning in the lives of the affected people.
