Despite the shocking serial attack on innocent people in Kokrajhar and Sonitpur districts, Assam is gearing up for Christmas celebration to mark the birth of Jesus Christ.

Churches, shops and markets are wear a fresh look on Wednesday evening when the Christians across the state are celebrating the X-Mas evening.

Churches in the various places are teeming with the people who are all prepared to attend the mid night carol songs on the eve of the much-awaited day.

Special prayers would be held tomorrow morning in the churches. Assam Times House greets the Christian people on the occasion. In a statement released on Wednesday evening, all time editor Babul Gogoi hopes that the festival would bring a ray of hope for the trouble torn state where love, kindness would reign supreme.
