ITANAGAR: War clouds are hovering over India and China if the border build up in Arunachal Pradesh is any indication.

More and more troops start fanning along the Indo-China border these days like never before amid the simmering conflict on Doklam.

The mountainous terrains of Dibang and Lohit valleys in the north eastern state are teeming with the troops in the name of strengthening border surveillance mechanism.

According to defence source, apart from patrolling along the international border the troops have been deployed to keep a close watch on the PLA activities along the Tibetan areas.

The area of concentration, right now, is Kibithu where troops are maximized to take on the Chinese counterpart who are understood to have been building the border along the Dau-Delai valleys.
