The Mwihur International Theatre Festival has ended in Kokrajhar, Bodoland Territorial Region (BTR).

The seven-day festival took place at the Bodofa Cultural Complex, Chandamari. Thirteen plays were performed by renowned artists from around the world, in various languages including Bodo, Assamese, Nepali, Hindi, Sinhala, and Malayalam. The festival was organized by the Lwrgi Theatre Group and supported by the BTR government.

The festival was well-received by theatre lovers in the region. On the last day, the "Rudali" drama in Rajashthani language was performed by Gandhi Hindustani Sahitya Sabha and Sumukha from Delhi. This performance received strong applause from the audience.

The Chief Executive Member of BTR, Pramod Boro, Assam Cabinet Minister Urkhao Gwra Brahma, and BTR Executive Member Reo Reoa Narzihary were present as guests and watched the final performance.
