The counter insurgency operations in Assam (/taxonomy/term/548) would be intensified within the next couple of days. This was what Army (/taxonomy/term/1519) Chief General Dalbir (/taxonomy/term/1560) Singh (/taxonomy/term/493) Suhag said on Monday when he reviewed counter-insurgency operations in the northeastern state.

In his address at the Eastern Command in Kolkata and Tezpur (/taxonomy/term/618) he outlined his priorities and expectations from his officers and troops in fulfilling the mandate of safeguarding the frontiers at all costs.

He was apprised of the operational preparedness and readiness status by GOC-in-C, Eastern Command, Lt Gen MMS Rai and GOC Gajraj Corps, Lt Gen AK Ahuja.

According to official release, General Dalbir (/taxonomy/term/1560) Singh (/taxonomy/term/493) Suhag had set forth an agenda of ensuring high levels of preparedness and vigil by own troops along northern and north-eastern frontiers at all times.
