The Jadikhe Naisho Hoshom (JNH) the Dimasa Apex body, Central Committee, extends its heartfelt congratulation and best wishes to Shri Joel Gorlosa, Chairman DHD(J) and Shri Niranjana Hojai Commander-in-Chief DHD(J) on the eve of their release from jail by an interim order on bail in the evening, the 16th day of August, 2011.

The JNH expresses its high sense of thanks and appreciation to the State Govt. of Assam led by Hon'ble Chief Minister, Shri Tarun Gogol and the Centre for granting such an interim order for release on bail of the jailed DHD(J) leaders to facilitate them to participate in the formal peace talks with the state Govt. of Assam and the Centre in the greater interest of all peace loving people of Dima Hasao District.

The JNH also extends its heartfelt thanks to Shri P.C. Halder, interlocutor who paved the way for peace process between DHD(J) leaders and the Govt. of Assam and India through his strained and talented efforts.

The JNH wishes that the peace dialogue must bear its intrinsic value for solutions of all problems of Dima Hasao district arising from every corner.

The JNH further appeals to the state and the Central govt. to solve the problems of DHD(Ceasefire Group) led by Shri Dilip Nunisa as Chairman by granting maximum autonomy to Dimasa people living in compact areas in Cachar, Karimganj, Nowgong, Karbi Anglong district of Assam and the Dimapur district of Nagaland for political, economic and cultural protection.
