Assam Congress leadership is confident of ten seats a day after the third and final phase of Lok Sabha polls in the state.

Talking to reporters at Rajiv Bhawan, APCC president Bhubneswar Kalita said that the ruling party will not get less than ten seats on May 16.

Kalita further denied any adverse impact of dissidence in the polls saying that difference may be there within the legislators. But in the same breath, he said that dissidence have little impact on the polls as the party in rank and file tried to put up a good show in the just concluded polls.
