

Kaziranga National park opens on Nov 1

Comments 0

editor 21 October 2011 10226 views

The Kaziranga National Park will open for the tourists on November 1. The abode of one horned rhinoceros along with some species of birds and animals are have been remaining closed from May 1. It was closed for the annual four month monsoon break.

As the date of the reopening comes closer, the park authorities gearing up to welcome the tourists with improved communication measures.

The KNP officials are visiting the various ranges to oversee the preparations.

The Kaziranga National Park attracts the maximum number of visitors along with Manas National Park, Rajiv Gandhi Orang National Park and Porbitaro Sanctuary.

The Kaziranga National Park earned a revenue amount of Rs 79,80,949 from 5,748 foreign and 67,968 domestic tourists in 2006-07.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

Goodbye, prince of melody.....

Healthcare for All: Shushrusha Setu Mega Health Camp in Nazira Constituency

BPF heading for landslide victory in BTAD

10 days training for paramilitary force

WWF India launches digital environment course for students and teachers
