gave away and this created communication problems within the KNP. All motorable roads of 350 kilometre length and 600 kilometre of patrolling paths of the forest guards were also submerged in the floods and even now most of them are under water. The Directors further said that the time of opening the KNP has not yet been fixed and it was not possible to open the park this year at the usual time, as the damages caused by floods would not so easy to repair. Moreover, a huge amount of fund will be required for it. wooden and temporary bridges gave away and this created communication problems within the KNP.
