The Kaziranga Rhino Cup 2026, a major national-level boxing selection tournament, will be held at Golaghat Stadium in Assam from June 5 to June 7, 2026. The event is being organized as a qualifying platform for the upcoming Pro Boxing League (PBL) of the Indian Amateur Boxing Federation.

The tournament will serve as the second qualifying stage ahead of the Pro Boxing League scheduled to be held in New Delhi in July 2026.

Through the competition, eight boxers—including five men and three women across different weight categories—will be selected for participation in the professional league.

Speaking about the event, Dr. Rakesh Mishra, National President of the Indian Amateur Boxing Federation, said that Northeast India has consistently produced some of the country's most talented boxers. He noted that the tournament aims to provide regional athletes with greater exposure and opportunities at national and international levels.

Dr. Mishra also emphasized that efforts are underway to strengthen Indian boxing through improved training systems, modern infrastructure, and a more competitive environment, keeping future international competitions, including the Olympics, in mind.

According to Rakesh Thakran, preparations for the Pro Boxing League are progressing rapidly. The league is scheduled to be held at the Talkatora Indoor Stadium in July 2026. The event's production will be managed by BookMyShow, while live streaming will be available on JioStar OTT platforms.

Attractive Cash Prizes Announced

Organising Committee Secretary Sanjeev Handique announced that winners will receive cash awards:

- Gold Medal Winners: ₹11,000
- Silver Medal Winners: ₹5,100
- Best Team Award: ₹21,000
- Best Referee/Judge Award: ₹5,000

Handique said the championship would provide a significant platform for young boxers from across the country and contribute to the growth of Indian boxing by identifying and nurturing emerging talent.

The organisers have invited boxers from across India to register and participate in the tournament, describing it as a valuable opportunity for aspiring athletes seeking entry into professional boxing.
