

Killing spree in Assam

Comments 0

editor 20 November 2009 9562 views

A suspected ULFA activist was killed at an encounter with police on Friday in Guwahati. The incident took place early in the morning which was followed by another shoot out at Chandmari in the city. Two NDFB rebels were killed at an encounter with security forces in Chirang district of lower Assam on Friday. The incident took place at Mauja basti where 2 pistol, 3 grenades were recovered along with some incriminating documents. In yet another incident, one person was killed while suspected Naga insurgents attacked a village defence party in North Cachar hills on Friday. The incident took place in the wee hours at Devi Nagar as a group Naga insurgents were on an extortion drive. , A school teachers was Som Bahadur Chetry, the severely injured person later succumbed to his injuries at the Haflong Civil Hospital. On the other hand, a youth was injured at a shot by suspected ULFA rebels at Phulguri in Nagaon district on Thursday evening.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

Hagrama tsunami in BTAD, UPPL, BJP at a loss

Golok Samman 2023 Announced: Four Young Honourees Recognized

Lokdarshan: A Vibrant Folk Dance Extravaganza in Udalguri

Manas National Park Reopens for Visitors, World Tourism Day Celebration Planned

Webinar held: women entrepreneurship and women empowerment
