Minister of state for home Kiren Rijiju visited Kokrajhar on Thursday for campaigning for the BJP candidates contesting from various constituencies in the district in the coming BTC election.

The BJP held a election rally at Raasmela field in Kokrajhar town and later at Gossaigaon town where the central minister attended as star campaigner.

Addressing the gathering the minister promised to ensure safety and security of the people in the BTAD and work for all round development if the party comes to power in the BTC.

He said the BJP has been working for all round development after it came to power in the centre and if its comes to power in the BTC and the state it will make the work easier to undertake development project and over the work in a greater way

Saying that development elude the region under the successive Congress govt in power, he said until and unless the BJP come to power in the BTC and the state, there will be no proper development.

The minister also promised to take action and inquiry and investigate against misuse of development funds in the BTC. He also stressed on the need of cleaning the system for a good governance and development.

You all have seen the miss rule by the Congress and BPF, the BJP is contesting election here for the first time, give us a chance and see how we deliver, he said.

The BJP is contesting the BTC election for the first time in all the 40 constituencies.
