About 1500 activists of Krishak Mukti Sangram Samity (KMSS) marched a rally at Nagaon on Tuesday. The activists of KMSS gathered at Nehrubali and marched a rally and demonstrated in front of the office of the executive engineer, PWD roads for more than two hours.. The protesters demanded for the immediate repairing of road connecting Kampur with Nagaon via Kathiatoli. In the demonstration, the state president Mulan Laskar addressed all the activists in which he told that the road condition of Kampur to Nagaon is very miserable. He also mentioned that if the government failed to repair the road, they would continue their agitation.
