Krishak Mukti Sangram Samiti will retain its non political entity. It will fight for the cause of the poor people.

This was what KMSS president Akhil Gogoi told reporters in New Delhi on Friday. Gogoi cleared his position a day after he had attended a crucial meeting in the capital convened by Medha Patkar.

Gogoi claimed that the Aam Admi Party has yet to fulfill its poll promises and that they won't support the new political party.
