Kamal Medhi is likely to surface at any moment. The KMSS general secretary is believed to have been preparing to surface before the police after the Supreme Court turned down his anticipatory bail on Wednesday in the Dispur self-immolation case on February 24.

Sources told Assam Times that the elusive leader who has been booked in the sensational self immolation of Pranab Boro has intimated his decision to the authorities through proper channel.

The Supreme Court on Wednesday rejected interim bail for Kamal Medhi who has been booked in connection with the Pranab Boro self immolation case.

The division bench of the apex court heard the petition moved on his behalf where the KMSS general secretary was denied bail in view of the seriousness of the case pending against him with the Dispur police station.

Medhi moved the top court after the Gauhati High Court refused to grant him anticipatory bail in connection with the sensational case where a KMSS activist died in self immolation attempt in Dispur on February 24.
